

How to provide proof of sufficient funds

You are going to study in the Netherlands. For this you have to show you have sufficient financial funds to live and study in the Netherlands. This is necessary in order to apply for a study visa and/or residence permit with the Dutch Immigration and Naturalisation Service (IND). On this page you will read how much money you need to have and how to provide proof of this.

Step 1: Paying your tuition fees

Before we start the application procedure with the (IND) for your visa and/or residence permit, you need to have paid tuition fees to Avans. Bachelor's, master's or individual exchange students (freemovers) pay their tuition fees to Avans, while contract exchange students continue to pay their tuition fees to their home institution.

Here you can find payment instructions for these tuition fees, if you are based outside of the SEPA zone. Note that the steps for paying your tuition fees differ from those of the payment for the IND application fees (explained on our 'Visa and residence permit' page).

Step 2: Providing proof of sufficient funds for living costs

Additionally to paying your tuition fees as addressed in Step 1 above, as a student in higher education, you need to have sufficient financial funds available to cover your living expenses during your stay in the Netherlands. You need to provide proof of this to the IND.

To prove to the IND that you indeed have sufficient funds to cover your living costs in the Netherlands you need to choose one of the options described below. This amount depends on the type of programme and the duration of your studies with us:

Student type	Amount for a full year of study	Amount for 1 semester of study
Bachelor's degree student non-EEA	€11,500	N/a
Master's degree student non-EEA	€11,500	N/a
Individual exchange student non-EEA (freemover)	€11,500	€5,750
Contract exchange student non-EEA	€11,500	€5,750

Be aware that the requirements for the following documentation are very strict. They have been set by the Dutch Immigration and Naturalisation Service and are not negotiable. ALL requirements as stated below are necessary in order for the document to be approved.
